

2024-25 Verification of Identity and Statement of Educational Purpose

The Student must appear in person to a Financial Aid Office at Eastern Florida State College to verify their identity by presenting a valid government issued photo identification (ID). Acceptable forms of ID include a driver's license, other state issued ID, or a passport. This document must be original, no photocopies or scans accepted. Eastern Florida State College will maintain a copy of the student's ID annotated with the date it was received and the name of the official at EFSC authorized to collect the ID.

In addition, the student must sign, in the presence of the financial aid official, the following:
